

UNDERSTANDING THE ECOSOCC STANDING COMMITTEE

ECOSOCC, an advisory body of the African Union, collaborates with civil society to address human rights, governance and development issues in Africa.

COMPOSITION

The 18-member Standing Committee comprises the Presiding Officer, 5 Deputy Presiding Officers, 2 representatives of the AU and chairpersons of the 10 sectoral committees.

FUNCTIONS

Strategic Oversight: Guides ECOSOCC to align with AU goals.

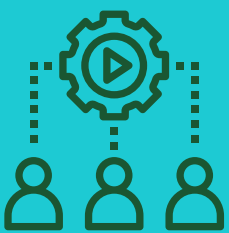

Policy Formulation: Develops impactful policies and strategies.

Coordination: Ensures cohesion between thematic clusters and AU organs.

Representation: Committee members serve as ambassadors, enhancing visibility.

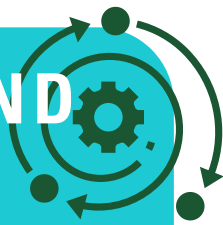

Review and Evaluation: Assesses program effectiveness and alignment with objectives.

ROLE IN ECOSOCC

The Standing Committee plays a central role in guiding ECOSOCC's activities and is interconnected with various initiatives and engagements.

BENEFITS AND IMPACT

Increased Visibility: Enhances recognition and impact.

Collaboration: Facilitates effective partnerships.

Alignment with AU Goals: Contributes to sustainable development, peace, and unity.

The ECOSOCC Standing Committee is instrumental in shaping ECOSOCC's impact, aligning strategies with AU goals, and fostering collaboration for a more united and prosperous Africa.

